01 Little Pea

This is the story of Little Pea, Mama Pea, and Papa Pea. Little Pea was a happy little guy. He liked to do a lot of things. He liked rolling down hills, and he liked hanging out with his family.

At bedtime, Little Pea liked snuggling and hearing stories with Mama Pea. But there was one thing that Little Pea did not like: candy.

They ate candy for dinner every night. Monday: Red Candy. Tuesday: Orange Candy. Wednesday: Yellow Candy. Thursday: Purple and pink polka-dotted Candy. Friday: Striped Candy. Saturday: Swirly Candy. Sunday: Rainbow Candy.

Little Pea hated all of it. ‘‘If you want to grow up to be a big, strong pea, you have to eat your candy,’’ Papa Pea would say. ‘‘If you finish your five pieces of candy, then you can have dessert,’’ Mama Pea said.

‘‘Five pieces?’’ He asked. ‘‘Five pieces,’’ they answered. ‘‘One. Yuck. Two. Yuck. Three. Four…’’

‘‘Five pieces of candy! Now can I have dessert?’’

‘‘Yes! Now you can have dessert,’’ said Mama Pea and Papa Pea. Little Pea couldn’t wait to see what it was.

‘‘Spinach!’’ Shouted Little Pea.

‘‘My favorite!’’ Little Pea licked his dessert plate clean. And they lived hap-pea-ly ever after.

02 Two Friends and the Bear

Tom and John were two friends. One day, they were passing through a dense forest.

John said, ‘‘Friend, I am afraid there are wild animals in this forest. What should we do if a wild animal attacks us?’’

‘‘Don’t be afraid, John,’’ said Tom. ‘‘I will stand by your side if danger comes. We will fight together and save ourselves.’’ So, they went on their journey.

But suddenly, they saw a bear coming towards them. Tom immediately climbed the nearest tree. He did not stop to think about what his friend would do.

John did not know how to climb a tree. He had no way of escape. He felt helpless.

But soon, he had a plan. He lay flat on the ground like a dead man.

The bear came up to John. It smelled his nose, ears, and eyes. It thought John was dead, so it walked away.

After the bear left, Tom climbed down from the tree. He asked John, ‘‘What did the bear whisper in your ear?’’

John replied, ‘‘The bear told me, ‘Do not trust a friend who leaves his friend in danger.’’’

03 SHARKS

What has fins, sharp teeth, and swims in the ocean? A shark!

Sharks have lived in the oceans for a very long time. They were swimming in the sea even before dinosaurs lived on Earth! Sharks are fish, and there are more than 400 types of sharks. Some sharks are big, and some are small.

What do we call baby sharks? We call them pups. Just like other animals, shark pups need time to grow. One day, they will become strong sharks too.

Sharks have many sharp teeth, but they often lose them. People lose their baby teeth, but sharks lose teeth all through their lives. When a shark loses a tooth, another tooth moves forward to take its place. New teeth are always growing. Isn't that amazing?

Sharks may look scary because of their sharp teeth, but they are important animals in the ocean. When we learn about sharks, we can understand them better.

Remember, the ocean is their home. We should respect sharks and give them space. Let's keep the ocean clean and safe for all sea animals!
